ready)

- 5-5 When the starter give the start, he will first shout “READY” and then give the starting signal with a horn.
- 5-6 If the starter considers that any crew has committed false start or violated any other regulation, repeated short horn sound to signal the restart of the race, meaning that all crews have to return immediately to the starting line.
- 5-7 If one of the paddles touches the water between the verbal signal “READY” and the boozing of the horn, it will be considered as a false start. Any crew refuses to return immediately for a restart after a false start or violates the regulation on the second false start will be disqualified.
- 5-8 In the case of false start, on the first time, the judge will exhibit a yellow card to the respective lane as a warning; and on the second time, any crew who violate the regulation (even the crew only committed a false start for the first time), the judge will exhibit a red card to the respective lane and disqualified this crew and the race will continue without conducting a third start.
- 5-9 It is the responsibility of the Head of Delegation or the Coach to explain clearly to their crew member with the starting procedure.

6. Race Conduct

- 6-1 The proper course for each boat is a straight line from its starting position to a corresponding point at the finish line. Each boat must race on its designated lane that is distinguished by bamboo sticks with colored flags on top.
- 6-2 On each race, judge boats will follow the racing boats to monitor. Any boat fails to remain in its course will be warned by the judge. If any boat crosses to the other lane and disturb the race, or leads to collision with other boat(s), the Race Controller after discussion with the course judge has the right to disqualify the crew at fault.
- 6-3 During the race, if any accident affects the progress of the race, the Race Controller has the right to stop the race by waving a red flag. The organizing committee has the right to decide whether or not the restart of the race will be conducted. The crew at fault will be disqualified for the race.
- 6-4 After each race, the crews must return immediately to the embarking place and return all equipment to the organizing committee. A fine of MOP$5,000 (five thousand patacas) will be imposed on the offender or the crew who intentionally damages the boat or the equipment. The organizing committee reserves the right to request the offenders to pay for the cost of the repairs.
- 6-5 If the Race Controller or the Judge discovered the crew has deliberately swamped or capsized a boat, the Organising Committee reserves the right to impose a penalty of MOP$1,000 (one thousand patacas) and disqualify this crew in this races.
- 6-6 Should the crew violated 6-4 and 6-5, besides penalty, the respective crewmember will be suspended for 2 years in this race. Or depending on the gravity, from 1-year suspension to life suspension.
- 6-7 Should any crew or the member, use violence or threatened the judge or staff, will be disqualified for life in participating any dragon boat race in Macau.
